

How to Use Your Template for Offering a Free Reading in Tarot Mastery in Exchange for a Review/Feedback

Thanks for downloading this free bonus for your Tarot Card Success Course

In this PDF I want to give you my best tips to help you use the template that you can send to members of Tarot Mastery if you are offering free readings in exchange for Practice and feedback/testimonials.

This will take about 10 minutes to read- but the time you invest in reading these pages could save you hours of disappointment or confusion in this group and other Facebook groups when you are offering readings to practice or to build up a tarot business

So for the majority of Tarot Mastery- the members are amazing enthusiastic lovely people who feel honoured to help you practice and build up your feedback and testimonials.

Unfortunately, occasionally there are people that take advantage of the system- and jump in the group and take up people's offers for a reading in exchange for feedback- but don't follow through on the feedback.

Even though I do try to get everyone to read the guidelines, and to watch the video on how to get the most of the group- sometimes people don't always do this.

I don't want this to scare or alarm you- but rather just be aware of as part of the nature of Facebook groups
Sometimes even in this group I will take 25 minutes to answer a student's question and won't receive a thank you.

But over the years of being in Facebook groups, I have learnt that person might not have seen it, they might be too busy- have some chaos in their life or they may be someone who didn't like what I had to say- and have chosen to ignore it or they don't have a habit of expressing gratitude when someone tries to help them.

Offering free readings in groups can be similar, so I want to help you avoid that!

I created a template Feedback Template for Your Tarot Card Reading that you can send to everyone who takes up your offer on Facebook.

With this template you also create a unique Password- that you will set to let you know that people have read your feedback template and understand the rules and conditions of your agreement)

Feel free to use this template in your other groups too.
(although if you could credit me as the author that would be appreciated.)

I suggest you copy and paste the words of How to Give Feedback to Your Tarot Card Success Reader then add your own extra bits that include your Youtube Channel/Facebook business page/website if you have them at the bottom.

If you don't have them yet- that's fine- still proceed and add them later.

I suggest sending the template to every person who PMs or emails you to say they want to take up your offer to avoid situations where people don't get back to you with feedback.

Make sure they have answered your password question BEFORE you commence reading for you.

If they don't send it back- then it's a good sign that they just jumped on your offer spontaneously but might not have time or inclination to honour your agreement.

In that situation, I would choose not to read for that person.

But before I begin – keep in mind that any agreement that exists between you and another member of the group to exchange a reading or provide feedback/testimonials is completely between the two of you.

All readings should be kept confidential between you and your client- and I am not in a position to mediate – (sorry these are things lawyers make me say!)

But if you follow this strategy- then you should avoid most potential situations that could lead to not receiving feedback!

POSTING YOUR OFFER IN THE GROUP:

1) So firstly- when you post an offer for an exchange, feedback or a testimonial- state REALLY clearly how many you can do (I suggest no more than 5 at a time)

2) Then state really clearly- how long it will take you to do the reading (the next 48 hour- the next week etc) just so people know what to expect in terms of time frames

3) Let them know you will be sending them a Feedback Template to help them provide you with feedback

(you don't have to do this if it's an exchange of readings where you are giving a reading and they are giving you one back. However, just make sure you are both on the same page when it comes to time frames of completing the exchange)

4) Please don't put in your post 'comment below' - (this clogs up the feed and confuses people) instead put PM me with your email address OR put your email address and ask them to email you

I PREFER this method as I think email is a much better form of communication than Facebook messenger- for the following reasons:

a) Messages get lost in messenger (I've had this happen)

b) email is more intimate and private

c) if people in the group know they have to email you to take you up on your offer they are more likely to not just be spontaneously jumping on an offer and wanting instant gratification. They will appreciate that effort and time in required on their part.

d) Facebook messenger tells you that someone has read your message. This sounds like a good thing- but sometimes it's confusing- they could be checking their Facebook while standing in line in the supermarket and get distracted – or a child could demand their attention – and it can be very demoralising to think that someone hasn't gotten back to you but read your message. Better to email rather than get into these potential situations.

So now that your group member has contacted you to say they are interested in your free reading in exchange for feedback or testimonials.....

First send them the feedback template- and let them know you are excited to work with them and you can commence your reading once they have read the terms and agreed to your conditions.

Let them know as soon as they have sent through the password you will start their reading. Let them know what time frame you expect the feedback for.

Keep in mind- some people won't feel comfortable giving you a testimonial. Maybe they don't want to appear in public and say they got a reading. Maybe they didn't like what you said because they are looking for a silver bullet answer- maybe they just have unrealistic expectations of what to expect from a beginner.

That is why it's best to ask for FEEDBACK – and then a testimonial if its appropriate. (the template will show you how to do this)

If you are only giving someone a free reading to get a testimonial for your business page- you may be setting yourself up for disappointment. It's much better to request feedback and then ask for the testimonial.

Even if they have agreed to give you a testimonial, over the years I have seen people experience all sorts of resistance when it comes to giving testimonials

Think of testimonials as a bonus.
